Financial aid for high-achieving international students

In recognition of academic excellence, and in order to make the choice to study at Ca' Foscari more affordable, the university offers financial aid specially earmarked for high-achieving international students.
For those enrolling in the autumn of 2026, there are 20 renewable entrance scholarships of 10,000 euro per year for exceptional master's degree students and 8 renewable entrance scholarships of 10,000 euro for exceptional bachelor's degree students. For more information, visit www.unive.it/scholarships.

How to apply

For bachelor's and master's programmes:

The university has multiple application rounds in which to apply for admission to begin your studies in the autumn, access to which depends on whether you are an EU citizen or a non-EU citizen.

For the precise dates of the calls and to find out which ones work for you, visit apply.unive.it.

Preliminary evaluation

Students who have carried out their preparatory studies outside of Italy must begin the application process by requesting a preliminary online evaluation of their qualifications at apply.unive.it.

Here is a checklist of the documents you need to upload online in the form of high-quality colour scans:

- ☐ Official diploma OR letter of enrolment
- ☐ Official high school mark sheet OR undergraduate transcript of records
- ☐ Official English or Italian translations of the above documents if they are not already in one of these languages
- ☐ For most programmes, certification demonstrating a B2-level knowledge of English (e.g., IELTS, minimum 5.5; TOEFL IBT, minimum 72)
- ☐ Letter of motivation (for master's degrees only)
- ☐ Curriculum vitae (for master's degrees only)
- ☐ Passport (EU students may submit an ID card)

For more information about the application procedure and deadlines, visit www.unive.it/evaluation.

Entry tests for limited admission programmes

If you are applying to a programme with limited admission, you will be required to take an entry test.

The test's format and when it takes place depend upon a number of factors, including whether you are an EU citizen or a non-EU citizen and the application round during which you apply. For specific information about the right test for you, write to prospective.students@unive.it.

For doctoral programmes:

Each year Ca' Foscari issues calls for applications in the spring that provide all of necessary details about the application and selection procedures for doctoral programmes.

Candidates must participate in a public selection process that entails the evaluation of their academic qualifications as well as an oral and/or written exam.

For more information about how to apply, write to phd.office@unive.it.
